

Introduction

Name: Edwin Mwangi Gachoka
son to: Stephen Gachoka Kibera
Margaret Wanjiru Gachoka

Background:

Born and raised in Molo Town, Nakuru County

Fascinated by technology from a young age

Tinkering with gadgets and exploring basic computer programs

Family Background

Supportive family environment

Encouraged to explore my interests

Importance of hard work and dedication instilled from a young age

Education

Strong foundation at Molo Academy Primary School

Fostered problem-solving skills, critical thinking, and a love for learning

DeKTUT: A catalyst for growth

BBIT program equipped me with a comprehensive understanding of IT

Programming Expertise

Proficiency in programming languages like Java and Python

Ability to translate ideas into functional code

Beyond Programming

Database management skills

Understanding of network design and administration

Internship Experience

Internship at Nanyuki Teaching Referral Hospital as an IT Administration
Intern

Applied theoretical knowledge to real-world situations

Honed adaptability and problem-solving skills

Reflections and Future Goals

Commitment to continuous learning

Importance of perseverance and overcoming challenges